

Olympia BOXING

Code Of Conduct For Young People

Olympia Boxing CIC is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. Olympia Boxing CIC believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the organisation should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the organisation with Head Coach & Director Wayne Smith.

As a member of Olympia Boxing CIC you are expected to abide by the following Code Of Conduct For Young People.

- All members must act within the rules and respect coaches and their decisions.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- All members should keep to agreed timings for training and inform Olympia Boxing CIC if they are going to be late or unable to attend.
- All members must wear suitable kit: Tracksuits, T-shirts, Tracksuit bottoms, Shorts, Boxing Boots or Trainers for training sessions.
- All members must pay any fees for training promptly.
- All members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on the programme premises or whilst participating in programmes.
- Bullying of any kind mentally or physically is not acceptable in any Olympia Boxing CIC programmes

As a result of any of the above codes being broken the young person(s) in question will face a disciplinary and potentially asked to leave Olympia Boxing CIC programmes.